

AFTERTHOUGHT

A VISIT FROM ST. NICKOLAS

By Thomas Nelson Page

It was the night
before Christmas
when all through
the house
Not a creature
was stirring, not even a mouse.

The stockings were
hung by the chimney
with care,

In hope
that St. Nick would call.

Gaston Gutierrez, fondly known by his friends as "Gus," was our exchange student from Argentina for the school year 1968-69. He readily made the adjustment to our American way of life with the assistance of his host families. He enjoyed playing on the basketball team, swimming, and being a member of the Chess Club. His favorite class was physics which coincided with his goal of becoming a physicist.

A TRIP TO REMEMBER

On May 2, 1969, the FTKC marching band started out in three buses for Winchester, Virginia to march in the Apple Blossom Festival Parade. This parade is the fifth largest in the nation. The band had gotten new uniforms especially for the parade. After the parade, the buses, full of band members, headed for the Dodge House on Capitol Hill in Washington D. C. That evening the band toured the Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials.

JUNIOR MISS

Harry and Grace Graves have two children—Lois, and Judy, who at 13 had, besides her confidante Fuffy and an amazing capacity for food, a burning desire to grow up to the glamorous age of 16. With characteristic reasoning Judy decides that her father must be in love with the daughter of his boss, affectionately called J.B. It is decided that it is Judy's duty to bring Harry back into the family fold. In addition to saving her family Judy takes it upon herself to "save" her Uncle Willis, whom she has never seen until his unexpected arrival on Christmas Eve. Because Uncle Willis' name must never be mentioned in the presence of her mother, Judy decides he has been spending his time in jail. When Judy isn't binding the family ties, she and Fuffy practice walking in their first high-heeled shoes and conspiring to wangle young men to be their escorts for the New Year's dance; the result of all of which practically assures Harry of the loss of the partnership with J.B. However, with circumstances at their worst, there is an unexpected turn, and Judy becomes Miss Judy Graves, a lovely Junior Miss who has her escort for her first dance.
